Dear Mrs. McNamara,

Your letter and its enclosure came in good shape.

I've read them both and there is nothing I can do to help you.

I'm now 75, my health has been impaired for some years and I'm not able to do very much.

I therefore limit myself to what is directly connected with the work I've been doing.

And your problem is not.

I do wish you well, of course.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
